“ To Bill and all the sweet children and grandchildren:

I left to go out of town on Thursday and didn't hear of Emma's passing until last night. She was one that I always thought of as such a true gentle woman, with class, spunk, talent in everything she chose to endeavor- food, flowers, decorating, but most importantly, making everyone around her feel comfortable and welcome. I remember every time anyone mentioned something about Emma, I always remembered how she made me feel when I was around her. What a gift God gave you all when he put her in your lives! I'm so very sorry for the grief you're feeling now. I will remember you in these hard days.

“ I am happy to say I had the privilege of knowing Mrs. Emma Jordan. She was a light in my life as a young woman and an inspiration. She always welcomed us into her home when I cheered with Sally. She was a beautiful role model to all!

“ This morning through tears, comes laughter and smiles of memories of you. You gave us Howard, we loved your cat on the roof, the day we went with a strange man to see something called a diorama, life lessons, love of Auburn, love of Fort Payne, your love of Abby, family loyalty and so many important life lessons. There were many occasions when I felt envious of your children for the Mother they have. Knowing full well the impact you had in this life, I can only hope your next life is ready for the ride! Love, Jennifer P.S. I knew I would forget something- proper addresses and tea parties, I learned even when I thought I didnt.
