“ Goodbye old friend. Your other sister (Linda) is waiting for you. We shared many nights at Aunt Ruby's house, fighting over who was to sleep in the single bed! Lots of laughs and lots of fun and sometimes sadness! You will be missed by many people- wish we could have had that visit we talked about. God Bless your family at this time and as time passes onward.

“ My deepest sympathy to Maxine's family. Maxine and I went through Fischer Elementary and high school together. We shared a common uncle. She was a great friend and funny person. She will be missed.

“ It was my privilege to visit Maxine in the hospital here in Chattanooga a few weeks ago. She was, as always, kind, sweet and funny. The posted picture of her is beautiful and is a great way to remember this sweet classmate. The Class of 1962 will never forget her joyous personality. Rest in peace, Maxine, never to suffer again. My best wishes to her family in hopes that soon only the good memories will remain.

“ I have a lot of memories of Maxine. We were classmates in high school. We have kept in touch with each other since graduation in 1962. What I will miss most about Maxine will be our long conversation on the phone. We talked about old memories, classmates, etc. We also spoke of our families and lives since high school. There wasn't much we didn't talk about. I will miss her greatly.

“ Our deepest sympathy to the family of Maxine Baty, a beloved classmate. She and I were in P. E. (physical education) for a couple of our high school years and we always had such fun whether we were folk dancing, playing soccer or basketball, tennis or volleyball. And then there were days where we had to play indoors and climbing a thick rope was part of the curriculum (I never made it, not many girls did). We also had a regulation table tennis set up on the way to the girls locker room and we sometimes played that. I never knew much about any pranks, but if there was one, Maxine was often in the thick of things. She could usually find something funny to laugh about. I am so sad she couldn't get healthier and stay with us longer, but when the Lord calls, we must answer. I have a testimony that God is real and so is his Son, they will make her homecoming a happy one and she will be blessed with good spiritual health and no pain and will rise again on Resurrection Day. Love you, Maxine.
