“ Ashley, Thank you so much for being such an amazing friend to both Rachel and Anthony, and a loving aunt to Kendra and Lilly. They were so lucky to have you in their lives. You were such a loving, caring, beautiful soul and I appreciate you being there for my family through the years. They always had such wonderful things to say about you, and after getting to meet you and spend time with you during their wedding process, I can totally understand why. I am so sad that your life was cut short, but please know what an impact you have made in the lives of the people that you loved, and that loved you. Rest in peace Ashley.
