“ *Mrs.Barbara is a beautiful soul , always smiling, always a kind word to share. I've known Mrs.Barbara for years and have had the pleasure of picking blueberries with her , listening to her tell me endless stories of her childhood and her love for her children and grandchildren and of course her love for Mr. C was a fairy tell love that's rare. I will cherish my memories of Mrs.Barbara and my book she gave me years ago " Jesus Calling " . She was unashamed of her love for Christ . And spoke often of her faith . Jesus called Mrs.Barbara home I know she was ready to go . Our thoughts and prayers are with the family .
Mrs. Barbara until we meet again fly high sweet friend .*

“ Chris and Jonathan, I am so sorry about Barbara's passing, was friends with her and Allen for many years. She was a beautiful soul, with the kindest heart! Me and my husband went and sat with her when Allen was in the hospital in Gadsden and had the best talks, she was so devoted, we tried to get her to go home and rest while we sat for her, she would not hear of it. I will miss our sweet talks most of all! I imagine they are having the best reunion today! You are all in our thoughts and prayers.
