“ From Nell Johnson: I didn't know until today of our loss of Bernice. It's a little difficult to describe my love for her. Our Association and friendship expands the years since 1944. There's nothing left to say except I love her and we had wonderful times together much love to the family.

“ My sincere condolences to the entire Knight family on the loss of your dear mother. Mrs. Knight was always very kind and soft spoken, but also possessed a great dry sense of humor. I had many fine meals at the Knight home, because she was indeed a fantastic cook! What wonderful memories I have of Felton, Bernice and the entire family gathered around that table!

I know words can not suffice at a time like this, however the Great Physician, Jesus Christ can comfort you, and I pray he will do just that.
