“ Bertha was a a very good friend to me, a very hard worker as well. Her and I worked together at Bailey Knit and listened to preaching and teaching on our walkman cassette player while turning socks. We shared our faith with each other and anyone else who would listen. She was a lover of God and I will never forget this precious soul. She wanted me and her to go to Israel some day but I know she wouldn't trade where she is now for any other place in the world. She's at her forever home now. Praise God! ”
