“ Miss Betty was my sunday school teacher for many years at Mt. Carmel. I only wish I knew more people that were dedicated to their church as much as she was! You were an example for us all Miss Betty!!!

“ We were saddened to hear of the Home going of Miss Betty. We only met her a couple of times personally, but felt we knew her very well through the many stories of Barb and Lois. She was a lady who enjoyed life and loved the Lord. The last time I saw her, in November 2006, she was on her way to church to teach her Sunday school class. There are very few who can say they have taught Sunday School into their 90's! Her legacy will live on in the many lives of those she has touched in her years at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. Our thoughts and prayers are with her family.
