“ *My condolences goes out to the entire family may Gods comfort & peace that only he can give fill you. Knowing your loved one is with his Saviour & Lord along with his soulmate lessen your grief. Bill Hall was a very wonderful man I met him through his daughter Beverly Smith who became very dear to me she shared not only her life with me but that also of her family. I was blessed to have known her mother Frances & her father Bill and both became very special to me. May the cherished memories you have of them keep you always knowing they held a special love for their family and most of all their children, grandchildren & great grandchildren. Much Love
