“ My heart is broken. I will miss Miss Billie so much. She has been a source of encouragement for me throughout the many years I have had the privilege to call her my friend. I cannot number the times when I was tired, anxious, or discouraged and Miss Billie took me by the hand and spoke God's love to me. Her testimony of God's faithfulness has encouraged many to forge ahead despite their circumstances or feelings to trust Him as Savior and Lord. She was intentional with her words and actions to love others with a love that could only come from God. Her seemingly endless energy to serve Him and His people is an inspiration to all of us who call ourselves Christians. I hope that I can someday be the light of love and encouragement to someone as Miss Billie has been to me. I loved her so and she will forever be in my heart.
