“ Julia and Dewayne..I am so sorry for your loss. Bobby was such a great person. He was always so pleasant when he came to have his teeth cleaned. I always enjoyed talking with him. I remember one time when I was cleaning his teeth, Dewayne that you wanted to ride the motorcycle and you noticed that your dad had forgotten his ink pen and you saw that as an opportunity to ride to the office and bring it to him. He said, "thank you, son..but I really could have used one of their pens...I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers!!!

“ I am very sorry for the loss of your loved one. May family and friends bring you each comfort, along with God's Word. John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 assure us that those who have died have the wonderful prospect of living again, at a time when God will have removed all sickness, pain, and even death from the earth forever! (Rev.21:4; Isaiah 25:8) May thesescriptures help to console each of you and give you peace.
