Susan and Mike, you may not remember me but Susan and I went to school together and I am Debbie Smith Crowell. Susan and I were in the same class. So sorry for your loss of your mother!!!! I can remember her like it was yesterday. My mom and dad have passed. My Dad, Clayton Smith and my Mom Geneva Smith as you may remember. I just found this out. Again, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I am in shock. I had a unique relationship with "Aunt Brownie". Moving into the neighborhood when I was only shy of my 2nd birthday. She and Uncle T.S. didn't want me to call them Mr. & Mrs. so they became aunt & uncle; though they were more like grandparents. I always found it very special that me and Aunt Brownie shared the same birthday. As a little kid I thought that was the most awesome of things. Through the years we always celebrated in some way with each other. Though I'm only finding out that my "Aunt"/ grandmother/neighbor has passed and my last respects have to be this way. Aunt Brownie and I had a great relationship, memories, & time that nothing can take away. We knew we would be together forever.

To Mike & Susan may your hearts be light and blessed that you had one of the greatest, most beautiful, loving mothers, that's a gift. God bless you is my prayer.

Love,
Niki Croft

“ Susan and Mike,
I was very sad to hear of your Mom's passing. I will always remember her as such a stately, well fashioned lady of the 60's and 70's, the beautiful red hair, flawless complexion, and such a sweet personality. One of the regrets of moving away from FP is missing people that I was so fond of. May God bless you and your memories of her, now and in the days to come.
