“ I met Burt many years ago when I lived in Ft. Payne and owned The Wax Museum record store. Burt and Mutt were some of my best customers and over the years we became fast friends despite the difference in our ages. I remember how close he and Mutt were. They seemed to be best friends as well as brothers. He always had that enigmatic smile that made me wonder what the private joke was. He always, always smiled. I've never seen such a happy person, other than Mutt. Please accept the condolences of my family and the Wax Museum family. When I was here in March Burt showed me pictures of his family. He was so proud of all of you! I wish I had gotten to meet you. Please accept our condolences from my family and the "family" at The Wax Museum. Mutt, please take care of yourself and if you need to get away, you and your family are welcome to stay at our house any time. Love to everyone
