I met Butch in the early 80s working a construction job in Loudon TN. We became instant friends and Brothers. We as well as several other Brothers of the road traveled together for about 8 or 10 years working the same jobs and staying in the same areas. We not only worked together but we were always together when off. We enjoyed life to the max and had so many Awesome Times together. We were a Family and still are. He Was One Of My Ride Or Die Brothers. I am so much richer in life for knowing you. You Will Be Missed My Brother But Our Times Together and The Awesome Memories Will Keep Me Smiling until we meet again. Ride High My Brother. God Speed.

“ I was so very sorry to hear about Butch. It had been several years since we had seen one another but we kept in contact through the years. I can't say that I saw him many times without a big smile on his face. Butch loved to pick on us, in a good way, he loved cutting up and having fun. Mama, Joe and I won't be able to be with you all but you will be in our hearts. Love yall, Aunt Hankie and Donna. 💕

“ Paige, so sorry to hear this! I remember the time that he brought you to Commerce, when you were little, so you could go on vacation with us that year. Butch was a great dad to you and Allison! He will be missed!

“ Butch was a sweet laughing fun easy going guy , i remember him well in school. He was so easy to like. Friend to everyone. So funny. Always smiling , had a great smile. He use to come to my house because he played ball with both my brothers , Verlon and dennis. Which by the way he was a great athlete. He was liked well by my parents , Doyle and Shirley bethune. They said he was so nice and well mannered. He wore a super scary mask at Halloween one year and came to my house and scared me sooo bad , he actually growled and I ran and he chased me all over the yard until my brother said , take off the mask Butch before you make her have a stroke !!!! He laughed soooo hard!!! I can still see him ! Lol lol. Boys today , if they could be like a Butch , it would be great !! Never arrogant , but smiling and friendly , kind words, you knew how he was going to be every time you was around him , never moody or ill or mouthy , but always the same !

🥰. All around sweet guy. I'm sure you will be missed by many. By family and friends and everyone who knew you and who met you. 💔. You left a smile on peoples faces. You was unforgettable. I'm so sorry for what your family will go thru now missing you. It's a tough loss. A sadness that truly can't be described by words. Only time and pray will help those whom you've left behind. My prayers are with them. You are in A better place called Heaven ! 😇🙏🦋. I'm sure my dad who you knew very well will welcome you in and my son will welcome you also. 😭💔💔💔💔💔. You are well today - it's such an irony how your happy and well , but how the loved ones still here carry such an ache in there heart. Death is such a two edged sword. 😊💔😇. How it can be happy and sad at the same time. But thank God for the plan he has for us ! ❤️. That Butch made it and that one day we get to be together again. So for Butchs family - you have my sympathy and my prayers. 😇🙏🥰. I do truly understand the sorrow you are feeling. Take a day at a time and pray each night. Stay around someone , don't be alone , don't sit in the dark , watch something funny , like Reba at night to keep a smile somehow , a little cheer , you don't want to get depressed , this sounds crazy but it helps. I lost my dad and son within a year of each other just 2 years ago , these things help keep you going. Do whatever it takes to not get to down and out. Butch would want you to. He was like that. My son told me he wanted me to go in and live 😭 and I think Butch would say the same. Well I'm going to go now , and I hope this helps someone in some way.

As I said , there are no words ,but I was hoping it will help somehow in someway. God be with Butchs family And I'm truly sorry once again. But remember , Butch is in a better place , he's well and happy. So tuck that away in your hearts always.
