

Calvin Clinton Blalock

May 14, 1943 - January 19, 2024

Calvin Clinton Blalock, 80, of Henagar, passed away Friday, January 19, 2024. He was born May 14, 1943 to the late J.T. Blalock and Charlsie Jane Loudermilk Blalock. Mr. Blalock was a carpenter by trade and worked for many years at TVA Bellefonte.

He is survived by his children Haskel Blalock (Karen), Stacy Blalock (Shelly), and Kim Blalock; grandchildren Britney Brocus, Alecia Blalock, Dillon Blalock, Vince Wright, Clinton Wright, Mara Blalock, and Sawyer Blalock; 13 great-grandchildren; brother Roy B. Blalock; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents J.T. and Charlsie Blalock; brothers Harbin, Jack, and Jimmy Blalock and wife Dottie Blalock.

At his request, no services are planned.

Wilson Funeral Home and Crematory of Fort Payne is in charge of arrangements,

Tribute Wall

PR

“ Clinton was my second cousin and a favorite character. He was so humorous and was a joy to visit. I feel a void in my life now knowing I can't visit him anymore. He loved you his family. I pray for your comfort and peace in the coming days as I know the void in your lives is huge. I loved Clinton and miss him. Phyllis Slater Reeves

Phyllis Reeves - January 20, 2024 at 06:21 PM

JS

I'm a cousin also. Clinton was kind loving an caring man. Always real fun to be around. I have cried since hearin. Prayers for all. Love all y'all joseph starr - January 21, 2024 at 09:35 AM

GM

Clinton Blalock was my nephew he was someone you looked forward to being around he could be so funny without trying to be his passing leaves a big hole in our hearts my love and sympathy to his children and grandchildren

Geri Mcdonald - January 21, 2024 at 04:14 PM

GM

We send our love and thoughts

Geri Mcdonald - January 21, 2024 at 04:15 PM