

Carol Jean Farmer

September 14, 1941 - October 11, 2023

Carol Jean Farmer, age 82 of Fort Payne, passed away Wednesday, October 11, 2023. Mrs. Farmer was born on September 14, 1941 in Fort Pierce, FL to the late Hugh & Gladys King Blanton. She was a caretaker at Magnolia Hills in Georgia.

Carol Farmer was a strong and sassy woman who humbly served God with every living breath she took.

She was an avid fisherman with her two tag alongs ( Josh & Mitchell). Even won a 2nd place award for largest sun fish caught in the state of Georgia.

Other than fishing, she was an avid “green thumb” gardener who enjoyed getting her hands dirty and anxiously waiting see the final flower come to life.

She set an example for her siblings, children, grandchildren, her friends and even strangers at times on how to have faith in God. She was a blessing to everyone who knew her.

A Graveside Service will be held at 3:30 p.m., Sunday, October 15, 2023 at the Walkers Chapel Cemetery. The family will receive friends on Sunday from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. at the funeral home.

She is survived by her daughter & son-in-law, Carolyn & Mitchell Coleman; step-children, Eugene Farmer, Tina (Ricky) Waycaster and Donna Farmer; brothers, Ronnie Clemmons and Wayne Clemmons; sister, Florence Horton; several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Harris D. Farmer; and parents.
