“ Our son, Raleigh was six years old and had attended Fort Payne Child Development Center where Carolyn was the director. At a cookout for the staff and their families our son sat by Carolyn for a long while. On our way home we mentioned our son sitting with Carolyn at the cookout. My husband told Raleigh, "That's ok son. Mrs. Harrison is a good woman." Six year old Raleigh immediately replied, "She's not a woman; She's a lady." Everyone that knew Carolyn knew she was truly a lady. Momma Carolyn will be missed all of us, but especially by all the children, many now grown up with families of their own. So blessed to have known and loved a lady like her. The Duttons

“ Carolyn and I shared a birthday so she always said we were twins which is a compliment. She often introduced me as her twin.
