“ Oh Chuck, growing up you were def. like a second dad to me! You were a great daddy to these kids. You were the keeper of all the corny dad jokes, player of all the annoying, cheesy kids tapes in the car, meatball sandwich Subway stop on a Sunday man. Thank you for making my childhood a little brighter just by being in it. With so much love, your "Spacey Stacey".

I met Chuck in the mid 80's when he was working at Valley Head. All the years we worked together, he always met you with a smile and hand shake. He was a good man and someone you would like to have as a next door neighbor. You all are in our prayers. Greg Mullins
