“ Charles was a larger than life character who was never at a loss for words, and I always enjoyed engaging him in conversation. It is fitting that he died doing what he loved best, and had he the choice, I'm sure that is how he would have wanted to exit this world. I know he is missed by all his family and I offer my sincere condolences to Pam, Chuck, and all his family at this time.

“ To Pam and the family of Charles Holbrook. Charles is a dear classmate of mine and I always thought highly of him. I also remember he once told me that he worked so he could have his beloved horses and take care of them. I knew he had won some awards but he never bragged on himself, but I know he was thrilled when he won a prize (and proud for his horse that earned one). May God's comfort be present in your lives and may you have sweet memories to look back on. I'd like to tell you that I believe life is eternal and that we will meet again some day in the eternities. I can see Charles now working in God's stables and taking care of his horses.

“ So sorry for your loss. Charles was truly a man to be remember from first time I met him. I know your days will seem empty with him not there in body, but will be by you and your family side in spirit. A man to be proud to call a husband and a father. Will keep you and your family in my prayers thru this hard time.

“ We were so sorry to hear of Charles passing. We all remember him fondly. My favorite memory was him at the VFW fair calling me "GG" when he let us in to bring livestock. Mom is going through her third round of chemo treatments and is just not able to make it back to the mountain right now. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you Pam, Celeste and Chuck. Love, Ginger Corbett and Willard and Betty Wright.
