“ I will never forget seeing Scott riding wheelies on his motorcycle through the neighborhood when we first moved into the Allen memorial community. All of us kids in the neighborhood became good friends and had some good times together. I will never forget the great memories we created and shared together growing up. Thank you Scott for those good times and memories. Rest in peace my friend. Jonell , I pray God's comfort and peace will be with you during this awful time. God Bless you!

“ Jo Nell I am sorry about your loss. I remember a lot of times when Scott and me would cut up. He was very outgoing and friendly person. I remember when he cut up with reverend Norman at church on Wednesday evenings. He would get him laughing. Scott will be missed. Prayers and condolences sent to all of you from me.

“ JoNell,
I am so sorry for your loss. I am one of Scott's school mates and I also married Scott's third cousin. I always thought the world of your son. He will greatly be missed and never forgotten. I pray that GOD will remember Scott's kind heart and I look forward to seeing him again in the resurrection.
