“ *The McGraws were our neighbors on Rochelle Street in Mobile Alabama for years. Mr. McGraw was such a funny and friendly man. I remember Katie his boxer, such a sweetheart. Katie disappeared one day and was never seen again. We visited the McGraws when they lived in Foley many times. I remember a bus trip from Mobile to Foley with my sister Ann who was good friends with Charlotte. I remember when I took my mom and dad and we visited the McGraws in Fort Payne. It was old home week. I cherish those childhood memories and the memories from our visit in Fort Payne. Remember the good times. Take good care of your mom Angie and cherish her everyday. RIP Uncle Charlie.

I am very sorry and sad for all of the Friends & Family members that has lost a great decent man.

I remember back when I was a young boy at his grandparents , my great grandparents up on the hill in Yarbo Alabama.

He would along with Uncles came up to hunt deer .

That afternoon the adults were out on the front porch eating supper.

All the talking about the deer that spooked him and got away.

The laughing and joking around.

Charlie had a smile that was always on his face.

I have not seen a lot of that side of the Taylor family over the years.

Live out of state the last 39 years.

The pictures i have seen on Facebook always puts a smile on my face.

May his close friend & family feel Blessed to have known Charlie.

May JESUS heal the pain we all have in our hearts & Remember the good time and memories.

Love y'all

“ Many wonderful memories of this man and Ms Pauline when I was a teenager and friends with Charlotte, Angie AND David..... I NEVER saw Charlie mad. I can still picture him how he walked almost like he was about ready to dance...always smiling and such a kind gentle man. I know this is an incredible loss and will keep you all in my prayers...🙏❤️🙏

“ I was blessed to know Charles McGraw along with Pauline, Angela , Charlotte , and Haley. A fine family . There are found meteorites I have of visiting Pauline and Charlie with Angela on a few occasions, and I remember talking with Charlie, who was the embodiment of kindness. He had told me that he could not resist offering food to his dog because he remembered what it felt like to be hungry and he never wanted anyone to experience that. I never forgot those deeply touching sentiments. There is a saying, “ be the pattern for what you want to see in the world.”, and Charlie was an example of a man that was aligned to nature and goodness . What a great world we would have if there were more Charlies. To his family that he has left behind - I offer you my heartfelt condolence.
