“ I loved my Aunt Clara and Uncle Mack even though not related by blood. They were great friends of my Great Aunt Verlin and Great Uncle Alonzo (Adub) Beasley. Even after she moved from Pensacola I enjoyed her calls.

“ To the Faulk-Eisele: I wanted to send my condolences to the family. I hope & pray that you all are coping well due to your loss. May the memories of her help during this difficult time. Please remember that Jesus promised a resurrection at John 5:28 & 29. We can see our dead loved ones again; right here on the earth but under different conditions (Psalms 37:9,10,11 & 29). I hope these words will bring you comfort until they are fulfilled. Love,

“ I remember my mother Neoma Hairel (Taylor) and I visited Clara when she lived in Pensacola. I believe it was in the mid 1960's. She was a very sweet and kind lady. I know she will be missed and I would just like to send my condolences to her family.
