

Curtis Dwight Crowe

June 21, 1939 - May 2, 2021

Curtis Dwight Crowe, 81, of Fort Payne, passed away Sunday, May 2, 2021 at his home.

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Thursday at Bankhead Cemetery with Rev. Wayne Wills officiating. The family will receive friends from 12 until 1:30 p.m. at Wilson Funeral Home.

He is survived by his wife, Felicia Crowe; her daughters Vanessa Brandau (Matt) and Valerie Burt (Aaron); grandchildren Leslie Travis (Gary), Kevin Biddle (Casey), Evan Brandau, Reid Brandau, Andrew McBrayer (Lacey), and Abby McBrayer; and great-grandson Mathew Miller.

He was preceded in death by his daughter Monica Biddle, parents Wiley and Sally Crowe and his 6 siblings.

Cemetery Details

Bankhead Cemetery

2151 County Road 642
Mentone, AL

Previous Events

Visitation

MAY 6. 12:00 PM - 1:30 PM (CT)

Wilson Funeral Home
3801 Gault Ave. N
Fort Payne, AL 35967

Graveside Service

MAY 6. 2:00 PM (CT)

Bankhead Cemetery
2151 County Road 642
Mentone, AL

Tribute Wall

“ Curtis Dwight Crowe

January 12, 2023 at 10:45 AM

“ Curtis was a special friend of mine. We worked together for a long time at W.R. Hosiery and he was so much fun. He loved to come to the office and chat. Felicia, please know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Love you.

Jo Dean - May 04, 2021 at 08:57 PM