“ Dale and I have been friends since elementary school. We have also been neighbors for many years. Dale was such a kind hearted guy that would do anything for anyone. He was so much fun to be around and talk about old times with. He truly loved his family and his grandchildren was his pride and joy. My prayers are with Debbie, the children and the grandchildren and family. I love you all.

My name is Diane white. My husband worked with Dale till he retired. He has talked a lot about Dale and their work. He appreciated the work Dale did and the friendship between. I will be praying for the family. Gods presence is always with during this time.
