“ I was saddened to hear of David's passing. I remember how passionate he was about college football especially his Auburn Tigers. He was a great guy and his memory will live on in all that knew him and called him friend. So sorry to Carol and rest of the family for your loss.

“ Remembering Forrest Ave. Elementary. Discussing a short story I had written, it was David that offered advice, and encouraged me...though I left Fort Payne, I never forgot David King, and how he was among the first, if not the first to encourage what God had given me.
