“ I grew up knowing Dianne, when she was about 17, my kid brother who was 10 yrs younger had a huge crush on her!! Later years she and I became co-leaders in Girl Scouts for our daughters' Daisy troop. We had a great time! We would run into each other over the years whenever I would be living in the area. Everytime we did, she always had a smile on her face! I loved her dearly and thought the world of her! I so hate to have heard the news a few days ago when her son made the post. She will definitely be missed by many!!
