“ To the Hairston family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Mrs. Dona was a very precious and Godly lady. I am very blessed to have known her. She helped me through some tough times, as a Substitute at Wills Valley. She always prayed with me, and for me, when I needed her to. May you find peace and comfort in knowing she isn't in pain anymore.

“ I have known Donna since we were Small children going to church together. Donna was a lady with the most Faith I have ever seen in someone. She did finish well and celebrating her new place with her Heavenly Father and family who Have already gone before her. RIP Donna, I Love You!
