“ Donnie was always Donnie. We had a special kind of friendship. I'll never forget when we were in our early teens, Donnie was at our house and I had thrown a hairbrush at my brother (another story) and Donnie looked and laughed like crazy. He said " dang, I'm gonna never make you mad. I'm gonna be your friend forever". And that he was. If we went to school dances, hanging out, shooting the bull...we knew we were friends. Donnie loved his son Brandon and his family. He wasn't ashamed of sharing his feelings. He was my friend...forever.
My condolences to his family.
