“ I met Dorothy Gray when I joined Mt. Carmel Baptist Church soon after I graduated from High School and moved to Fort Payne in 1967/1968. Despite our 26 year difference in age, she and I became fast friends and remained close down thru the years, even when there were many life changes for both of us. A grander Christian lady I have never known. I will miss her more than I can say.

“ I love and will miss my Aunt Dorothy. She lived a long, beautiful life and I am sure she is rejoicing with her siblings and parents right now. I will see her again one day.

“ I work at the nursing home, I'm a activity director. Mrs Dorothy was so very special to me. She was the sweetest thing. She always called me baby or gorgeous. I was blessed to know her and get to love her and be loved by her. Prayers for your family.
