“ Emil was a great man with a big heart. He loved God and the church. He contribute more than money and worship time. He gave material things to the church and did work in and around the church. I consider him my dear friend.

“ Uncle Emil was our favorite relative. We have many fond memories of him when we were growing up. I remember one summer on our Grandpa's farm, he help us build a fort with cinder blocks and plywood. We wore him out with all of the remodeling we wanted him to do. He was full of fun ideas and a bit of a prankster. We will always remember him and the fun times we had with him.

“ Emil was our "fun uncle." He was the youngest in his family, so he was only 10 - 14 years older than most of his nephews and nieces. I remember as a child spending many happy days on our grandparents' (his parents') farm along the Ohio River east of Cincinnati.

Emil would come out from his apartment in town while we were there, bringing fireworks that we would set off from the field down by the river. He'd take us for rides on the tractor, and help us build a fort out of some empty oil drums and spare plywood. We cruised down the river with him in our grandparents' cabin cruiser.

After he moved south, he lived on several acres in the country south of Huntsville, where he and Beverly housed a menagerie that included cats, dogs, and peacocks. I guess he was always a country boy at heart.

Many thanks to Arbadella for being a loving wife and taking such good care of him in his declining years. I'm so glad we got to see you both when we passed through Fort Payne last October.
