“ *CORRECTION to Guestbook entry that I made just moments ago:
The Washington, DC, school trip was in 1953, not 1957! Sorry.*

“ Erby & I (and a couple of others) were best friends in high school, graduated together (and took the school trip to Washington in 1957) and we stayed in touch throughout the years, including our class' last reunion. I miss him and my trips to Boaz to see him during his latter years.
