“ Phillip, David and Tim: I am so sorry that Joe and I were not here to attend the memorial service for Frances. We were in Nashville for a doctor's appointment. I was filled with sorrow because it was unexpected. Know that she was a dear friend and a wonderful caring and loving person. We were friends for many decades, and I have never heard anyone say anything about Frances that was not complimentary. That is a life well lived, something that most don't achieve. We will miss her so much and hold each of you and your families in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I have known Frances for many years and I will missed her. She never changes always the sweet loving person and a good friend. I wanted to come to the funeral, but since I just had major surgery, felt like it was best not to. I think I am still in shock over her death as you all must be. My thoughts and prayers are with you doing this grieving times.
