“ There is isn't really anything I can say...Fred and Lucy both made my family part of there's when I was so young. Growing up it was a tradition that every Friday we spent the evening with them and during the summer Lucy would sometimes baby sit me. Even though the years we grew apart I will always remember Fred's deep voice and his love for singing in the choir and his love for watermelon during VBS...Tessa and Me will always remember you...

“ Fred and I sang in the choir at first Baptist Church in Whitesburg, Kentucky. We often talked on the phone over the years and he and his family visited us in North Carolina. Fred always said if I don't meet you here on earth again, I'll meet you in the air. Fred was a very kind person and he will be missed greatly by his friends and family . Rest in peace Fred. Praying for you, Lucy and family.

“ Fred was the best neighbor and friend. We will always say "Hey neighbor!" Like he did with his southern accent. It makes us smile. We shared a lot of laughs, some tears and lots of hugs through the years. I will forever miss you ❤️ ☐
