“ Gena, I think about you every day. a song or something reminds you of the many times and deep conversations we had. You were truly a big peice of my heart no amount of time or space ever changed that. You were one of the only people i felt i could truly be myself with. Until i see you again hold down the fort baby!!!! i love you.

“ I'm just now dining out about your passing baby girl, I remember one of our many conversations that sticks out to me so hard right now, You once told me that all you've ever and will ever truly love is your babies, that you was thankful for your mother and siblings helping you raise them when at the time of our talk we both wasn't able to be there for our kids, You cherished them and I will forever know you still do.... I love you so much Baby Dumas, now go get back in your Crib (Inside Joke between us)
Rest in Paradise Gena, Raise Hell till I Get there!
