“ To the Brisendine Family:
I would like to extend my condolences. I have worked with Lane for many years and I he is a wonderful person that is why I know his father must of been a wonderful man also. I recently lost my mother on April 22, 2014 and just want you to know that I know the pain you all are feeling and I pray for comfort for you entire family. God Bless you and Keep you! Lane I am here if you just need someone to talk to and believe me you will but it is okay.

“ My heart goes out to you all. The staff at WinShape Retreat will truly miss visiting with Grady and hearing all about his time at Berry School and working at the Dairy. We could all tell how much Grady loved the Mountain Campus of Berry College and his time here. We enjoyed seeing him & Miss Wydene at the back table of the Grand Chalet drinking coffee and enjoying popcorn. He was always ready to share a smile and a story.
You will surely be missed Mr. Grady!
