

Howard W. Norton

June 17, 1943 - August 27, 2010

Howard W. Norton, 67, of Fort Payne passed away Friday, August 27, 2010 at home following a heroic battle with leukemia. He was born in Sherwood, Michigan on June 17, 1943 to Horace and Maxine Norton. He was employed with Game Time in Ft. Payne for 43 years. He was an avid sportsman who enjoyed hunting, fishing, and being in God's beautiful created outdoors. He also loved working on his farm. But most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family and close friends. Howard believed to enjoy life you had to smile and often said "Smiles made a bad day much better." Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Monday, August 30th at Wilson Funeral Home Chapel with Greg Henry officiating. Burial will follow in Glenwood Cemetery. He leaves behind his loving wife and best friend Jimmie Norton; daughters Christine (Dewayne) Ogle, Rebecca Norton, Angela (Leonard Bellew) Henry, sons Greg (Beverly) Henry and Jeff (Robyn) Henry, 17 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren, sisters Sharon (Calvin) Marsh and Linda Griffin, special aunt Ruth Starr, brothers-in-law Floyd Lothamer and James (Phylliss) Tucker, sisters-in-law Judy (Ronnie) Simmons, Kathy Williams, Donna (Rickey) Ennis, and Patsy (Lee) Kepler, numerous nieces and nephews, and special nurses Gail Stevens and Kathy Moss. He was preceded in death by his parents Horace and Maxine Dowell Norton, son Brent Norton, father and mother-in-law James and Opal Owens Tucker, sisters Nancy Welch and Donna Lothamer, and brother-in-law Bobby G. Tucker. Serving as special pallbearers will be Tom Burt, Jimmy Woods, Chase Woods, Coye Neeley, Dr. Williams Gibson, the Tool and Die, Maintenance and Housekeeping departments of GameTime.
