“ My Fred Killian played in a band, Wild Horses, with Alan before I met them. I had since been blessed to hear Alan play and sing before my Fred passed away in April. God's band has gained another marvelous musician and person! Alan was always so personable, funny, and kind. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Prayers for his family and all his friends. 🙏🙏🙏

“ My husband roomed with Al in Deerfield, Mi where they taught together. Then the three of us moved to Wyoming in 1980 and taught school together there for 8 or 9 years. Al stood up for us when we got married and wrote and played a beautiful song especially for our wedding. We also enjoyed listening to him play in a local band in Rock Springs. We have many fond memories of Al from many years ago. And we can't wait to see him again in heaven.

“ I met Alan when his father was pastoring the Church of God of Prophecy in Battle Creek, MI. While living there he attended college at Western Michigan University. I watched him write musical arrangements for all instruments in the WMU marching band, sing in and play piano for church groups. He was also outstanding playing jazz and contemporary music. He loved making jokes and making people laugh. Alan, you will be missed greatly by those who knew you and loved you. Rest in peace my dear friend.
