“ James and I worked together at Southeastern Salvage, and I live just one street over from him in Irondale. We rode to work together many times. He had the purest heart of anyone I've ever known. James made 'work', fun. He will be truly missed, and his family is in my prayers. RIP my friend.

“ I met James when he was 14. Peter brought him home to stay with us. He was always the best houseguest and great with our twins. I would buy him an Easter baskets and small things if he was there on holidays. Such a sweet human. He will definitely be remembered! Roll Tide!
