“ So very sorry to hear this sad news. I guess I was probably Jim’s first mentor after he hired into TVA. BRILLIANT guy, friend, and always fun to be with. I have to share this true story. Just after Jim hired in with TVA, we were going to Paradise Steam Plant. I asked him to drive! He did not object. BIG mistake. Before we even got out of Chattanooga, he lost control of the car on a freeway entrance ramp and almost crashed. We were both shaken up. I asked him why he lost control. His response was “I don’t have a driver’s license.” I took over the driving duties! He graduated from Christian Brothers and never had a license much less owned a car. Needless to say, he got his license shortly thereafter and was so proud when he bought his first new car! Don’t remember the brand, etc., but as I recall it was loaded. May G oh d Bless all his family.
