“ Thinking of u all!! We loved Jane with all our heart. I don't think there has ever been anyone quite like her. I know she took up for us on so many occasions. NO one has ever done that. She would always listen to my troubles when nobody else would. I could talk to her or ask her anything. She would always say "Lynda it's gonna be alright." and that would ALWAYS make me feel better. She is truly going to be missed so deeply.

“ Jane was a very dear friend. I've spent many nights in her home when we were growing up and she in mine. I loved Jane and her three brothers very much. I was in hers and Terry's wedding. Jane was part of an original group of eight Fort Payne High School graduates who have gotten together once a year for the past many, many years (I'm not sure of the number). We shared everything-- getting married, having children, having grandchildren, sadly burying our parents, and many other "events" in our lives. We were very close. Our group had already lost a dear member a few years ago, and now Jane. We are down to six now. Our hearts are broken but we are happy that Jane is now with Jesus and is healed. Praise God!

“ Dear Terry, John, Tommy and Dick - I just learned of Jane's passing and I extend to each of you my very deepest sympathy. There are so many memories my family has, entwined with the Groat family. Jane and I literally grew up together, and I was honored to serve as a Bridesmaid in her wedding. I so deeply regret that I will be out of state the day of her funeral, but my heart and prayers are with all of you.

“ Jane and I started first grade in the same class, graduated together, went to JSU together, and I was in she and Terry's wedding. I moved away and didn't see her often but I never left the friendship. It was easy to go see her and it was as though I never left. I'm away from home today and can't get to the funeral, but my heart and love will be there, Terry. I am so sorry.
