

Jennie Madge Dollar Burt

July 10, 1915 - May 11, 2011

Jennie Madge Burt (Aged 95), a lifelong resident of DeKalb County- (Dogtown) passed away on May 11, 2010 at DeKalb Regional Medical Center. She was the widow of Grady Burt, who preceded her in death 35 years ago. She is survived by her sister, Lorene Killian, and her brother, Edward Lee Dollar. Fondly known as "Aunt Mag" by the multitude of her nephews, nieces and friends, she held legendary status for her gifts of hospitality and mercy. A wonderful cook, she served countless meals at the table in her modest home. It seemed to all that everyone of every status and background was welcome at her dinner table. She loved her nieces, nephews and other kin and was affectionately referred to by them as their second Mom. She loved the Lord and served him all of her days. Aunt Mag was devoted to her Church, Ruhama Baptist. She especially loved children and was caring and loving to all who are/were sick, hurting or in need. Funeral services will be 2 p.m. Friday, May 13th at Ruhama Baptist Church with burial following in Walkers Chapel Cemetery. The family will receive friends Thursday from 4 until 7 p.m. at Ruhama Baptist Church. In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions be made to Ruhama Baptist Church in memory of "Aunt Mag." Wilson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements, www.wilsonfhinc.com

Tribute Wall

“ Jennie Madge Dollar Burt

January 12, 2023 at 10:45 AM

“ Aunt Mag was a wonderful lady, my heart and prayers go out to all who loved her.

amanda tucker cannon - May 11, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I remember many meals eaten that were prepared by Madge. My family spent many hours at her home. (Claude and Edith Burt were my parents) Thoughts and prayers are with you..

David Michael Burt - May 11, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Aunt Mag inspired more people than she ever realized through her generosity and love of life. We should all be so lucky to have someone like her, and we should all aspire to be an "Aunt Mag" for someone else. I will never forget you, and I will pass down your lessons.

Tim Stephens - May 11, 2011 at 12:00 AM