“ Heaven has gained another sweet angel it is hard to believe that you have gone . Dianna and Jerry and my husband and me had some good times together Jerry love to tease me about different things and i love for him to tease me we had some really good times we all would talk for hours and laugh and go eat dinner and breakfast I really miss the good times we all had together but health issues kept us from doing what we use to do and I really miss it .when Dianna and me would talk on the phone Jerry would be in the back ground teasing me you will be missed Jerry .God has other plans for you now you are walking with the king and you can't beat that I love Dianna and Jerry they are great people .prayers for you Dianna and your family love you .
