“ Tammy and I just wanted to send our thoughts and prayers to the family. It's been an awful long time since we have played in backyard as kids. Tammy still remembers getting lost in the cornfield? We always liked Jerry, he was nice. Yours was one of the fun places mom and dad would bring us. They are probaly playing cards by now and laughing at old times.....

“ There is a large part of my heart that emptied when I received the news of Jerry's passing. It is now packed with myriad and wonderful memories of the only man close enough to be my brother - his love, sense of humor, and true personal charity will be a lasting challenge for any man to duplicate. My love to you Wilma and know that my heart and thoughts are with you at this difficult time. My condolences to your children and grandchildren, and to Wayne, Mike, Donny and Rosemary.

“ Mrs. Playford, I am so sorry to hear of Mr. Playford's passing. He brought joy to so many. My mother gave me the old telephone from your house this Christmas, and I enjoyed reminiscing of the times you and Mr. Playford spent with Jay and me several years ago. I also recalled the times Mr. Playford brought Santa Claus to church and community gatherings in Terrapin Hills. He will be missed and remembered. My thoughts and prayers are with you. “ Dear Wilma and Family: When there is love, any life is too short. I want to express my deepest sympathy. Bereavement is so personal that few of us, unless we have experienced it ourselves, can comprehend its grief. I am there for you anytime.
