

Jessie Ruth Stout

October 24, 1933 - September 24, 2015

Mrs. Jessie Ruth Stout, 81, of Fort Payne left her earthly home and went to her Heavenly Home on Thursday, September 24, 2015. Mrs. Stout loved working in her yard and her garden. She loved to fish and she loved her John Deere Tractor.

Her Celebration of Life service will be at 1 p.m. Saturday at Wilson Funeral Home with Rev. Jacob Daniel officiating. Burial will follow in Mt. Herman Cemetery. The family will receive friends Friday evening from 6 until 8 p.m. The family is accepting flowers or a memorial contribution may be made to the Pine Ridge Fire Department.

She is survived by her daughters, Julia Diann Stout Gann and husband, Danny and Kelly Mitchell and husband, Mark; brothers, Ed Wooten and R.J. Wooten; sisters, Betty Jo Horton and Brenda Wooten; grandchildren, Matthew and Tasha Mitchell and Drew and Miranda Gann; and great-grandson, Alex Gann. She was preceded in death by her husband, Roland Stout.

Wilson Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

“Jessie was one of the sweetest persons I have ever met. I worked with her at the Bakery when I was a call-in. She was always very helpful. On breaks she taught me to read crochet patterns and helped me learn new stitches. She was and always will be a beautiful lady. I'll miss you.
