“ Ms. Denise,

I met your husband when I was 15 years old, my brother Hud introduced me to him. He was such a kind person, a calming presence in the eye of any rock n roll storm we loaded into, or out of. When I left school and went on the road, I was lucky to ride a bus with Joe, and to have someone who felt like family in my first years traveling to learn the ropes from. I watched him give that same kindness of his to total strangers on many occasions. He reminded me of my father that way, and its the biggest compliment I could give to anyone. I ran into him a coupe years back, and the photo is below. You have no idea how much Hud and I treasure our friendships with Joe, we loved him like a brother. I send my thoughts and prayers to you, you're all's children and grandchildren, and you're entire family in this time of grief.
