

Joel E. Sharp

October 18, 1934 - April 26, 2013

Joel Edward Sharp, 78, of Fort Payne passed away on April 26, 2013 at his residence. Mr. Sharp was born in Dekalb County, AL on October 18, 1934 to the late Amos Franklin and Maggie Mae Dennis Sharp. He was an insurance agent retiring from Farm Bureau (later ALFA) Insurance Agency. He was a member of Southeast Baptist Church. Mr. Sharp loved southern gospel music and formed the Sharp Quartet some 25 plus years ago. He retired from traveling with the group during 2012. His love for music allowed him to teach numerous singing schools at churches around Dekalb County. Mr. Sharp is survived by his wife of 59 years: Annie Ruth Beason Sharp, sons and daughters-in-law: Andy & Janice Sharp and Dale & Debbie Sharp, daughter and son-in-law: Karen & Mike Twilley, sister and brother-in-law: Carolyn & Ronald Barksdale, grandchildren: Ben Sharp, Amanda Twilley Poe & her husband Landon Poe, Laura Twilley, Seth Sharp, & Matthew Sharp, step-grandchildren: Justin Hill & Heather Pruitt, and great-grandchild: Lillian H. Pruitt. He was preceded in death by his parents and sister Barbara Dean. Funeral services will be 3:00pm Sunday from the Wilson Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. John Keefe, Rev. Howard Holland, and Brother Mike Leath officiating. Burial will follow in Glenwood cemetery. The family will receive friends on Saturday 4:00 until 8:00pm at the funeral home.
