“ I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and concern for all saddened by this death and also share with you that death isn’t the end. We know this because the Bible confirms it. For instance, Jesus demonstrated this in John 11 verses 11-14, 39, 43, and 44, where he said to those who were with him when he learned of Lazarus’s death when he was on earth: “Lazarus has fallen asleep I’m going to awaken him.” To show that the dead are simply sleeping in their grave till the last day when the resurrection will take place, Jesus went to the grave and called Lazarus, who was buried for four days and he came out. What Jesus did then, will happen again because he promises in John 5 verse 28 that when he’s ruling the earth by means of God’s Kingdom, he will indeed call everyone who’s in the grave to come out and they will. (Daniel 2:44) (Revelation/Apocalypse 20:6). So as you await John’s resurrection, please trust in that promise because it’s guaranteed. Meanwhile, please take steps to respond to Jesus’s invitation in John 17: 3 to gain accurate knowledge of Jehovah and Jesus by studying the Bible with the Witnesses. In John 5 verse 39, Jesus explains that such study is vital for those who wish to have endless life one day here on earth, which will be transformed into a paradise where you can be re-united with your dead loved ones again including John. (Ps: 37: 29).
