We are so sorry for your loss. John was such a wonderful person, full of love and kindness. I am thankful to God that we crossed paths in our Lundstrom/Whitehall days. He knew how to make this girl laugh! I love the picture of John in the snow. It made me think of Christmas morning 2010 when John spent the day with Karl and I. We admired the snow from the windows, those large flakes falling. I remember telling John how much it reminded me of Michigan, only I did not miss home because my friend John was there. One of my favorite things about John was his love for learning and education. Karl and i will cherish every memory of our friend. He always had the right words to make you smile. Our life is richer because of knowing him. May God comfort you and give you peace, Randy.

*Love,
