

John Q. Ingraham

January 6, 1941 - February 1, 2023

John Queen Ingraham, 82, of Fort Payne, passed away Wednesday, February 1, 2023.

He is survived by his wife, Gayle; children Chris Ingraham, Lisa I. Shiver (Matt), and Heather I. Combs (Scotty); and grandchildren Lucas Combs, Whitney Shiver, Jack Wagner, Emma Wagner, and Max Shiver.

No services are planned at this time. The family suggests memorial contributions be made in John's name to the Little River Canyon Center, c/o JSU McClellan Center, 100 Gamecock Drive, Anniston, AL 36265 (<https://fundraise.givesmart.com/e/bUFVRA?vid=wz8zn> for John Ingraham) or the Greater Alabama Council, Boy Scouts of America, 516 Liberty Parkway, Birmingham, AL 35242, memo line: FOS, Sequoyah to assist local scouts with camp fees.

Wilson Funeral Home and Crematory of Fort Payne is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

DR

“ John was a thoughtful, creative man, an engineer who worked with his hands to create everything from space shuttle parts to playground equipment. He deeply loved his wife and family. May Gayle and all of the family be granted peace.
Daryl and Peggy Rothchild

Daryl and Peggy Rothchild - February 09, 2023 at 04:18 PM

PS

“ I remember him as a gentle, kind, patient and incredibly intelligent soft spoken gentleman. He and Gayle were such a great couple. May the Lord comfort you through all your friends and family. Peace be with you.

Paul and Deb Solomonson - February 08, 2023 at 07:55 AM

RS

“ My memory of John is one of a very kind, intelligent man with a heart designed for loving the girl of his dreams; my sister, Gayle. God give you peace, Gayle and your family.
Bob and Jean

Robert Solomonson - February 05, 2023 at 10:09 PM

RC

“ *One of my favorite people ever!
You will be missed!
Bye Dow now, but we’ll meet again.*

Robert Crumley - February 03, 2023 at 05:40 PM

SW

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you Ingrahams, Shivers and Combs, as you process this difficult loss. What a full, rich life he lived! Love you all.

Sara Wittenberg - February 03, 2023 at 12:24 AM