“ Joe was a good man. He was a friend to many. He was a giver and always had an interesting story to share. He recently brought us a big load of cedar boughs just because he knew we would appreciate it. He was like that. Always thinking of others. He will be missed by many. Love to his family.

“ My mother and I are very sad for Joseph's family's loss. We have appreciated having him a part of our lives. Joseph spent a lot of holiday and some special occasion with Hjordis at our home. He was a bright, interesting man who was kind and generous and, with Hjordis provided a home that was a comforting thing to his stepdaughters. He made their mother happy. I appreciate Joseph and will miss him. I hope we meet again.
