

Joseph L. Underwood

December 25, 1927 - November 22, 2013

Mr. Joe Underwood 85 of Fort Payne passed away Friday. He was born Dec. 25, 1927. Mr. Joe worked for Word Lumber Co. for over 50 years, and Kuhn True Value Hardware for several years. He was the proprietor of Joe's Janitorial Service. He had a love for gospel music and began singing with his brothers as a young boy. He promoted gospel music and organized and managed several quartets thru the years and received several musical awards. The annual Booms Day celebration is in his honor. Joe was a mentor to the youth of the community. He was a member of the Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church, where he was a member of the male chorus and served as a deacon. He was loved by everyone, and everyone loved his smile.

Funeral services will be 1:00pm Tuesday from the Fort Payne Church of God. Burial will be in the Glenwood Cemetery. The family will receive friends Tuesday from 11:00am until 1:00pm at Fort Payne Church of God.

Survivors include his wife, Jessie Prater Underwood. Daughters and son in laws, Patricia and Lewis McElrath, Mozella Kerley, Stephannie Underwood and Kathy and Carl Prater. Step-Son, DaShawn Prater. Sister, Odie Fielder. 12 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

“ Uncle Joe,

Words can't express the way I feel right now. You have paved the way and taught not just your grandchildren, but your nieces and nephews a lot of things in life. I myself will never forget the things that you have showed us and taught. I love you and miss you. Your nieces.

“ I was fortunate enough to have known Joe. I will always remember his smile and his kindness. He was always so pleasant. I left Fort Payne in '95 so it has been a long time since I have seen Joe but I know he would have been the very same. I send my condolences to his family. Just think of the good times and it will help you through the rough times ahead. I bet he is singing in heaven.
